Universities Canada's Calculation of Average Policy

Universities Canada's policy on calculation of average has been developed in consultation with university and college admissions and financial aid officers from across the country. It is Universities Canada's policy to calculate the academic average of applicants so that it reflects an academically well-rounded individual, while recognizing the differences in the programs of studies. For this purpose, the most recent, followed by the highest available grades in the following categories will be considered: Language, Social Sciences, Mathematics and Sciences. Six courses are chosen for each applicant, with no more than 2 in each category. If there are not enough available courses, the calculation of academic average may be based on 5 or 4 courses.

FIELD OF STUDY / PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- There are no restrictions on the program of study or discipline.
- Program must be of a minimum of 2 years in duration.

SELECTION PROCESS

The Beedie Luminaries selection of scholarship recipients is made by experts from the community and educational institutions in British Columbia. The selection process will be conducted in three phases:

- Phase 1: Financial Adversity - Each application is read and scored by two experts on the Beedie Luminaries Reader Panel, evaluating the applicant's demonstration of financial adversity, including the household income, living arrangements, etc. The top 150 candidates move to Phase 2.
- Phase 2: Individual Evaluation – Each application on the shortlisted list of candidates is read and scored based on the evaluation criteria listed below by three experts on the Beedie Luminaries Selection Committee.
- Phase 3: Interviews* and Award Announcements – The finalists are invited for interviews with the Beedie Luminaries Selection Committee. All applicants will be notified of the results of the selection process, once available.

Once the selection process is complete, decisions are irrevocable.

*Applicants must make themselves available for interviews in late April/May 2022.

Evaluation criteria:

- Demonstration of financial adversity;
- Clarity of the applicant's educational goals, focused commitment and academic readiness, according to BC's new curriculum set of core competencies;
- Applicants' proven work ethic, grit and resilience in the face of adversity;
- Responses to short-answer questions on the application form;
- Community and home contributions and/or extracurricular activities;
- Quality and relevance of the reference letters; and
- A brief personal video file.

SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

Successful applicants will receive confirmation of their scholarship in May. Recipients will be required to complete the online scholarship acceptance process and forward proof of registration from the educational institution they will be attending.

It is the responsibility of the recipient to keep Scholarship Partners Canada informed of any changes to their contact information through the online portal.

Please note, the names, videos and photographs of successful applicants may be used in promotional initiatives for the Beedie Luminaries Foundation.

PAYMENT

Proof of registration must be submitted to Scholarship Partners Canada upon acceptance of the award in the student portal on or prior to the deadline date of August 17, 2022 to activate the payment. Payments for this program will be made as follows:

- Scholarship Partners Canada will forward payment of the tuition portion of the scholarship ($5,000 for a bachelor degree/university transfer program and $3,750 for a diploma/certificate or trades program) to the institution on behalf of the Beedie Luminaries Foundation. The institution will be instructed by Scholarship Partners Canada to apply the payment to all tuition-related expenses and to credit any unused funds directly to the student. The tuition payment will be paid out once at the beginning of the fall term.
- Scholarship Partners Canada will forward payment of the stipend portion of the scholarship ($5,000 for a bachelor degree/university transfer program and $3,750 for a diploma/certificate or trades program) directly to the recipient on behalf of the Beedie Luminaries Foundation. The stipend payment should be used for additional educational expenses and will be paid out once at the beginning of the fall term.

Scholarship payment(s) will only be issued upon completion of the scholarship acceptance process and the submission of all required supporting documentation by Scholarship Partners Canada.

It is the recipient's responsibility to ensure that payment of tuition fees is made within the defined time frame set by the educational institution regardless of the timing of the scholarship payment.

Payment by the institution to the student will be made in accordance with the normal practice of the educational institution.

LETTERS OF REFERENCE: GUIDELINES

You have been asked to write a letter of reference on behalf of a student applying for a Beedie Luminaries Scholarship through Scholarship Partners Canada. Writing a letter of reference takes time and is greatly appreciated both by the applicant and by the program selection committee.

The letters MUST be sent via email to awards@univcan.ca and received by January 13th, 2022, 9 am PST . The email subject line should have the Student's First and Last Name.

The applicant would appreciate a prompt response in order to meet the application document deadline.

To assist you in the preparation of this letter, please refer to the scholarship program guidelines and to the information below.

Letter of Reference (Academic)

If you are providing a reference letter related to a student's academic performance, please ensure that the letter indicates the student's full name, is typewritten on school letterhead, is signed, dated and includes your contact information.

Please state the length of time and the capacity in which you know the student. Please provide an overall picture of the student in the following areas:

- Personal character traits
- Strengths and weaknesses
- Academic history
- The applicant's educational goals, focused commitment and academic readiness, according to BC's new curriculum set of core competencies

In addition, please indicate if the applicant demonstrated resilience, extraordinary effort and ability to overcome adversity.

Letter of Reference (Community-based)

If you are providing a reference letter related to volunteer/community contribution or extracurricular activities, please state the length of time and the capacity in which you know the applicant. Describe the applicant's role, their accomplishments and how their service and/or involvement has impacted the organization, the community or the individual students' household.

In addition, please indicate if the applicant demonstrated resilience, extraordinary effort and ability to overcome adversity.

Thank you very much for taking the time to support this applicant and contributing to a fair selection process.
